Obituary

Lloyd H. Joseph was born in Charlottesville, Tobago in Trinidad on April 10, 1939. He was the son of Verona Joseph. He passed away on May 31, 2016 after a courageous battle with Lung Disease and Prostate Cancer. He migrated to the United States over fifty years ago and finally settled in Newark, New Jersey.

Lloyd was an avid gardener and grew delicious vegetables and nurtured spectacular plants. We were always amazed that he could grow corn on an apartment terrace and trees inside the house. He enjoyed cooking dishes from his native country, which permeated our souls with the rich fragrances of his cooking pots. Lloyd also concocted the best Rum Punch, which was the signature drink at his after hours club, Scarlet Ibis. His family and friends reveled in their enjoyment of the Rum Punch. On many merry occasions, the participants were dancing on the ceiling. Lloyd's passion also included betting on the horses at OTB and playing daily lottery numbers.

Lloyd had a wonderful sense of style - especially when he wore his African Gown. Whenever he wore his gown and entered a room, his regal stature always made a very powerful statement.

Lloyd was a loving and loyal partner to Pierre for 22 years and Pierre was equally loving and loyal to Lloyd. If you remember the show, The Odd Couple, Lloyd was Felix and Pierre is Oscar.

Although we are all saddened by the loss of this wonderful spirit, we take comfort in knowing that he is without pain and resting in God, the Creator's arms.

Lloyd is survived by his three siblings. He will be missed by his multitude of friends and family.

1 Corinthians 13:8, 12-13

Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
