Obituary

Beatrice Webb Trapp was born in Franklin, Virginia March 5th 1943 to the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Webb. Beatrice attended the Franklin School system where she later left to care for family.

Beatrice had the pleasure of relocating to New Jersey in 1962 where she gained employment and maintained her independence.

Beatrice was an outgoing, passive and charismatic person who loved family gatherings and entertaining friends.

Later on in her life, she met and married William Trapp on November 21st 1981 where their union remained until her untimely departure from this life.

Left to cherish precious memories: her husband, William Trapp; her five devoted children, David Webb, Stephanie Godett, Eunice (Ahmed) Muhammed, Sheila Webb and Melonise Webb; god daughter, Beatrice (Chris) St Julien; fifteen grandchildren, Tyrone, Jeffrey, Isaiah, Nicole, Issac, Brian, Amirah, Jasmin, Shante, Jakita, Stephon, Chanel, Akeem, Donald Jr and Corey. One preceded in death. Ten great grands (2 preceded in death) Siblings: Carolyn (Eddie) Bradley, Francis (James) Bell, Silals (Nancy) Lee, Walter (Anne) Webb. Thirteen preceded in death. Along with a host of nieces and nephews. Special friends: Izetta Ransome, Effie Cotton, Betty Jackson, Ellouise Johnson, and William Godett.

A wife a mother and a Grandma too this is the legacy we have from you... You taught us love and how to be strong but you never prepared us for you to go home. You gave us strength to find someone stronger well we could never. A heart made of gold your love gave us all hope you raised five kids fifteen grands and ten great grands and when it came to us you did your very best. Job well done Bea now it's time to get your rest so go in peace you've earned your sleep but your love and the greatest memories we will carry for eternity...

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
Whatever the part.
