Obituary

Frederick Eugene Murphy was born June 26, 1960 at the old city hospital called Martin's hospital (now UMDNJ) to Alberta Murphy, and the late Eugene Murphy. Fred grew up at 7th Avenue Projects attending Mckinley until they later moved to Schuyler Avenue and finally residing on North Seventh Street in North Newark. Fred attended Weeqhuaic High school where he ran track. He started working at the age of 15 at Gino's Pizzeria. After working for Gino's for a few years, Fred started working at Woodbridge Developmental Center in the late 70's where he was a building service supervisor. He met Lorraine Woodard while working at Woodbridge and in 1985, a day before his birthday his first child, LaTanya Alberta Murphy was born. He also met his last child mother, Sheila Hines at Woodbridge in 1987, and in 1989 Tyre Eugene Murphy was born. After leaving Woodbridge, Fred started working for the state at the Department of Roads and Bridges becoming a supervisor of the bridge operators at the Clay Street Bridge in Kearney, NJ. After working there for about 15 years, due to cutbacks he was laid off and started working as a display assembler at stores like K-Mart and IKEA.

Fred's hobbies were cars and planes. He loved the beach and swam like a fish. He often took his children and his niece, Malinda Murphy to places like Florida and Wildwood. He was a great father to his children and his niece taken on a parental roll for her and aiding his parents in raising her. If you got to know Fred, you can definitely be a witness to his kindness, he touched everyone's heart he came into contact with. The whole entire neighborhood knew who Fred and his family was. He was a kind spirited person who loved the ladies. If Fred had and you needed it, you got it. He was a jack of all trades. He did any type of electrical work without formal schooling that was just a gift he had. He had his own side business as a contractor, it was called FM Contractors where he worked on businesses and residential homes. Every Christmas, he made sure the kids had whatever they wanted. During the past few years, Fred had become sick due to complications of his Diabetes. Although he was sick, he still aided in the help of raising Malinda's daughter, Aaliyah Moore. He would babysit her and his grandchildren, and often picked her up from school.

Fred is survived by: his mother, Alberta Murphy; brother, Derrick Murphy; his sister, Deborah Battiste; his two children, LaTanya Alberta Murphy and Tyre Eugene Murphy; his three nieces, Malinda Murphy, Brittany Murphy and Monique Battiste; and two nephews, Warren Battiste III and Michael Battiste; grandchildren, Josiah Murphy, Ahniya Battiste and Harmony Stith; one sister-in-law; one brother-in-law, Warren Battiste, Jr.; and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles and aunts.

Corinthians 4:16-18

Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.
