Obituary

David Alan Hill of New York City, New York was born on March 7, 1969 to the late Isaac Riley and Alice Hill Riley. David departed his life on Memorial Day, May 30, 2016 at 6:12pm at Bellevue Hospital. David had a great personality along with an amazing sense of humor. His easy smile and positive outlook were very contagious. Coming from a family of funny people, the Hill-Riley clan, David was fun to be around and had a real talent for making people laugh. A lot!

While growing up in Harlem and the Bronx with his three brothers, Isaac Arthur, Derrick and Marcus, David developed a strong interest in comic books and became an avid collector. He related to the super heroes in his books by adopting attributes such as courage, perseverance, strength and honor. David was always willing to help others.

David attended and graduated from Park West High School, New York City. There he discovered his passion for cooking and met the love of his life, Charna Robinson. After graduating, David decided to serve his country and joined the Army in 1989. He was sent to Heidelberg, Germany where he cooked for a 4-star general and 500 enlisted and civilian personnel on a daily basis. After some debating David married Charna in 1990 and received the birth of their first child, Derek Anthony the following year, then later followed by Carolice Robin and then still later a daughter, Trinity Renea was born to David and Tammy Brady.

David and family returned to the United States. He eventually became a driver for Access-A-Ride. David loved to drive and was an excellent driver. His co-workers nicknamed him "Superman" because of his ability to arrive so quickly to his destinations. He was truly a super man both on and off the road. David was a devoted husband, fantastic father, cherished son, loving brother and his love for and impact on others was like the stars in the universe, immeasurable.

David is survived by: his beloved wife, Charna Hill; children, Derek Anthony Hill, Carolice Robin Hill and Trinity Renea Hill; mother, Alice Riley; brothers, Isaac Arthur Hill, Derrick Riley, Marcus Riley, Ikechus L. Chaney, Nakia Chaney and Hekima Smith; sisters, Felicia Smith and Stacy Broaddus; father-in-law, Robert Robinson, Jr. and his wife, Valerie; mother-in-law, Carolyn Robinson; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, many relatives and many friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
