Obituary

Cameo Lee age 46, died peacefully in her sleep on June 2, 2016 at her residence located in the West Bronx, New York City.

The daughter of Mary Lee Anderson and Artie Lee and the youngest of nine siblings. Cameo's personality was often described as cute, smart, energetic, loving, feisty and caring. Cameo was born on October 3, 1969 at Bronx Lebanon located in the South Bronx, New York City. As a child some of Cameo's favorite activities were singing, dancing, reading, and playing video games at the neighborhood game room. Cameo graduated from William Taft High School in 1990, while dually enrolled at Hunter College. While attending Hunter College, Cameo began her career in construction which she continued doing for eight years.

In 2006, Cameo graduated from Thompson Institute with her certification as an electrician, also receiving a 3.8 GPA. Several years later in 2015, she received her certification for counseling. Cameo was always willing to help others and would often stand up for those who were less fortunate than herself. Many would remember Cameo as someone who always smiled, laughed, and truly loved her family and friends. Everyone who knew Cameo knows that whenever they needed her, she was there no matter what. She always tried to make others happy and comfortable.

Cameo always loved those who were around her and in her circle, she would often say, "we're a family, we're supposed to stick together no matter what." Even when it came down to her "Three Musketeers" she'd say, "touch one of mine, it's on and popping".

Siblings: Deborah Anderson (deceased), Ronald Anderson, Nathan Anderson, David Anderson, Henry Anderson, Vincent Ryan, Thomas Lee, and Chris Lee. Children: Dasanique Lee, Zephaniah Hulcome, and Assata Robinson (everyone's favorite). Along with her beloved cousins, nieces, nephews, god-daughter, aunts, uncles, and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard Him call
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day.
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it up with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much.
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free!*
