Obituary

Nossie Izelia White-Clark, the first child of Addie and Freddie Warren White, Sr., was born in Richmond, Virginia on August 25, 1927.

Nossie gave her life to The Lord at an early age and was a faithful member and worker of Zion Baptist Church of Richmond, Virginia. She was educated in the Virginia school system and was a graduate of Armstrong High School and continued her higher education at Virginia Union University, where she earned a Bachelors Degree.

Nossie relocated to Newark, New Jersey where she met and married her late husband, Edward Clark, and become the mother of two daughters.

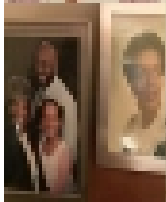

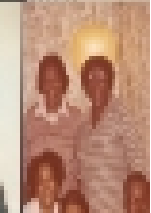

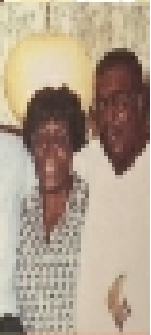

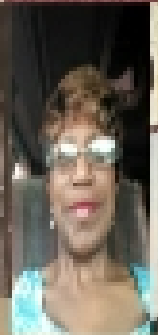

Nossie, a member of New Hope Baptist Church, had a great love for her church; and showed it in SOOOO many ways. She also dedicated 32 years of her life serving others as a registered nurse at Greystone Park State Hospital in Morris Plains, NJ. Aunt Nossie or “Nana” as she was affectionately called by most of us, was a nurturing strength of assuredness and very influential in our lives. It was a pure joy just to be in her loving presence.

Nossie leaves to cherish her memory: her two daughters, Michele Lewis (Craig C.) of Moonachie, New Jersey and Sherylle Clark of Maplewood, New Jersey; one grandson, Dennis Lewis (Nakia) of Newark, New Jersey; two great-grandchildren, Tymir Lewis (LaTasha) and Alexis Lewis (Jennica); one sister Mrs. Marie Rowe of Newark, New Jersey and one brother Mr. Raymond B. White (Esther); faithful nephew and nieces Ronald (Abdul-Alim), Andrea, Valarie, Lytanya, Perdithia and a host of other family and friends.

Nossie is predeceased by her husband, Edward Clark; her sister, Mrs. Mary Carmichael; her brother, Freddie White Jr. (Alberta); and one niece, Renita White.

I THANK

Oh Nana my baby, thank you for your perfect Milk Shakes ALL day, and the farina w extra butter and sugar, an the spaghetti w extra cheddar cheese, n the mac and cheese "bursting w flava"! (in PJ's voice from that one Thanksgiving lol). Thank you for taking time to cut my nails w teensy scissors instead of nail clippers, even when ur arthritis was actin up, thank you for forcing me to talk to my sister again. Thank you for making me wash w antibacterial everything; but never forcing me to flush the toilet at night cause the noise scared me. Thank you for not knowing if evvveryone was gonna make it, but still cooking for 30. Thank you for singing "Stormy Weather" every morning and making your coffee in a sauce pan and freezing ur sweet tea til it was JUST slushy enough. You raised us all to be strong and gentle (the gentle I'm working on but I gotchu). Most of all thank you for waiting for me to come home to you one last time. I know you were so tired. U left to the scene of your favorite tune...Such beautiful stormy weather.
