Obituary

Lillian F. Shaw was born on November 29, 1940 to the late Reverend Walter Jones and Minnie Jones, in Whiteville, North Carolina. Lillian was the youngest of six siblings.

She grew up in Lake Waccamaw, North Carolina where she graduated from Artesia High School in 1958. Lillian was better known by her friends and family as "Boo" or "Aunt Boo".

While in North Carolina, Lillian met her husband, Harold Shaw and they later relocated and married in 1961 in Newark, New Jersey.

Lillian later united with Greater Abyssinian Baptist Church in Newark, New Jersey and was an active worker in many ministries. She was also an active member for many years in Queen Esther 88.

Lillian is survived by: her husband of fifty-five years, Harold Shaw; her sister, Dorothy Jones of Duquesne, Pennsylvania and a host of godchildren, nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, family and friends. She was greatly loved and will be truly missed.

Today I Joined The Lord

The Lord called me Home today; a lot of people cried.
But don't stand around asking the Lord, "Why?"
Many of you will miss me, I know this much is true;
But I didn't die completely, a part I left with you.
For all of you that cry today, know that I'll cry too.
But now I am in a better place, looking down on you.
For now I am with the Lord and happy to be here.
Don't spend your time crying; wipe away your tears.
I live within your memories, and deep in your heart.
Take comfort in our yesterdays, for today we must part.
Don't leave feeling empty, or wondering what to do.
You know I didn't like sadness, or people feeling blue.
So next time you see the sun, think of it as me;
The next time you hear a bird sing,
Look up at the tree.
For I may be anywhere, you know it could be true;
So listen as you walk through life -
Because now I will walk with you.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
