Obituary

Miriam Augusta Mascall, age 86, of Cedar Grove, Antigua went home to be with the Lord, Sunday, June 19, 2016.

Miriam Mascall was born December 25, 1929, but her birth was not registered until January 22, 1930. She was born in the village of Cedar Grove to Michael Lee and Sarah Ann Samuel, both of whom preceded her in death. Miriam was called home on June 19, 2016, at MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care, Bronx, New York. She was a faithful member of St. Mary's Anglican Church, Bronx, New York and St. James Anglican Church, Cedar Grove, Antigua.

Miriam Mascall attended Cedar Grove Primary School, Antigua. She worked at Gambles' Golf Club, before gaining employment at the American Air Station as a waitress. Miriam and her family migrated to the United States in the early 80's. Miriam went back to school and got her certification in nurse's aide and began caring for the elderly until her retirement. She resided at 2110 1st Avenue, Manhattan until God called her home.

Survivors include: her sons, Hilary and Frenzel Ambrose, and Andrew Mascall; twelve grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; nephews, nieces, especially Duport and Lavern Philip; godchildren; and a host of extended family members, special friends, including her church family at St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
