Obituary

Edna Jackson was born to Gladys Jackson and Herbert Smalls on June 30, 1951. She was the eldest of three sisters in the Jackson household, Gladys, Angela (preceded her in death) and Larri.

She graduated from Washington Irving High School, she studied Business Administration at Malcolm King College. God's light shined on her throughout her life. She lived a life filled with generosity, opening up her home to friends and family in need over the years.

Born Edna Jackson later in life she changed her faith as well as her name to Ajeenah Salahuddin. Family and friends will forever know her as Mommy. She loved gospel music and watching Jimmy Swaggart along with her candy bars and ice cream.

Ajeenah's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by her understood that quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives. Her gentle smile and vivacious spirit brought much joy to all that knew her.

Ajeenah is survived by her: children, Theresa Jackson, Gina Jackson and James Jackson; grandchildren, Anthony, Ebony, Eric, Rita, Nelson, Ashely, Tahjai, Shaliyah, Lexy, Aaliyah, Alivia, and Angel; great grandchildren, Dasani, Kaylah, Anasia, Emani, Isaiah and Jerome; brothers and sisters, Larri Jackson whom she loved dearly, Paulette Wright, Janine Wall, Jackie Chaplin, Herbert Chaplin, Micheal Chaplin and Eric Chapman; one aunt, Edna Buie; three nieces, Denise Gilliam, Pamela Jackson, and Renee Jackson; as well as a host of cousins, family and friends.

A Letter from Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart ♥*
