Obituary

Gail Core was born April 29, 1948 to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis J. Core in Harlem, New York. She departed this life on June 17, 2016 peacefully.

She leaves behind a legacy of two generations, daughters, Desire L. Core and Christina Bruns and grandchild, Mia L. Nabors, her sisters-in-law, Lillian Green, Gloria Washington, Linda N. Bruns-Pearson, Diane E. Bruns, the late Sharon N. Mitchell and Natalie Washington, and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Gail served as the Matriarch of her family. Gail loved her family unconditionally and taught them to be strong, moral, independent, responsible, and productive human beings.

Gail worked over 35 years in the Garment District as a Credit Collections Manager. Gail played an active role as a Community Activist and Volunteer at the Mount Hope Neighborhood Association for many years. Gail enjoyed traveling, shopping, family gatherings and taking care of her granddaughter. Gail guided and supported each generation of her family in every way possible and served as an inspiration to all.

Carry On My Children

Carry on my children and do not weep.
For today is not the end but instead the beginning.
Carry on my children you must be strong
For I am home with the Lord and I am free from all that ails me.
Carry on my children and keep my memory alive
Remember our laughter and all the joys we shared.
So until we meet again, Carry on my dear children
For one day we will be free.

Nana's Poem

Someone who will understand; who knows the way I feel.
In every situation her concern is very real. Someone who has walked my ways; who knows my every need.
Times when she would see me cry, her heart would nearly bleed.
Everyone should have a Nana just the way I do.
Richly blessed is what I am to have a Nana like you.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown in their time of sorrow.
