Obituary

Lucille Gladys Costello, (86), departed this life Sunday, June 19, 2016. Lucille was born July 16, 1929 in Franktown, Virginia to Mr. Robert Henry Baines and Ms. Bernice G. Baines.

Lucille was educated in the Franktown, Virginia School systems. Lucille met and married the love of her life, Mr. John L. Costello. She made her transition to the Trenton, New Jersey area where she worked as a private house keeper. She later retired from her career as a house keeper and started working and taking care of children within her family and in her local neighborhood.

Lucille was a very well-rounded woman. She enjoyed going to worship, shopping and spending time with her family. She especially enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. As the mother of the New Hope Primitive Baptist Church, she enjoyed working with the people of her church and community.

She is preceded in death by her late husband, Rev. John L. Costello, parents, Robert and Bernice Baines and two sisters, Maggie Baines and Rose Ann Baines.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: her two daughters, Cynthia and Linda (Ronnie) Costello; grandchildren, Lashawna Costello, Brittany Hill-Costello, Nathaniel Costello (Marshay) and Keimi Harper-Costello; special great-grandchildren, Zion Costello and Bre'Lyn Burke-Costello; sister, Ethel Cason (Warren); niece, Doris Garcia-Spady; two nephews, Robert Spady and James Baines; and a host of other relatives, friends and church members.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
