The Bend In The Road

*Sometimes we come to Life's crossroads
And view what we think is the end
But God has a much wider vision
And HE knows it's only a bend.
The road will go on and get smoother
And after we have stopped for a rest
The part that lies hidden beyond us
Is often the part that is best.
So rest and relax and grow stronger
Let go and let God share your load
And have faith in a brighter tomorrow
You've just come to a bend in the road.*

Obituary

Victor Charles Fraser

Victor Charles Fraser, affectionately known as “Tah,” or Uncle Victor, was born on February 24, 1930, in Georgetown, Guyana, the fifth child of five children. He was born to loving parents, Irene Maude (Nedd) and Hubert Fraser. He received his formal education from Enterprise High School and the University of Guyana, where he graduated with honors with a degree in Social Work.

Victor taught Mathematics at his alma mater Enterprise High School, before accepting a job as a Social Worker at the Ministry of Health, where he was assigned an office at the Georgetown Hospital location. In addition to his job at the hospital, he also worked as a Social Worker for the Dorcas Youth Society in Georgetown.

Victor blazed many trails in Georgetown during his career as an accomplished and well respected Social Worker. In 1980, he migrated to the United States and settled his family in Paterson, New Jersey. He was employed by Wayne General Hospital (formerly Paterson General Hospital), from 1980 until his retirement in 1995.

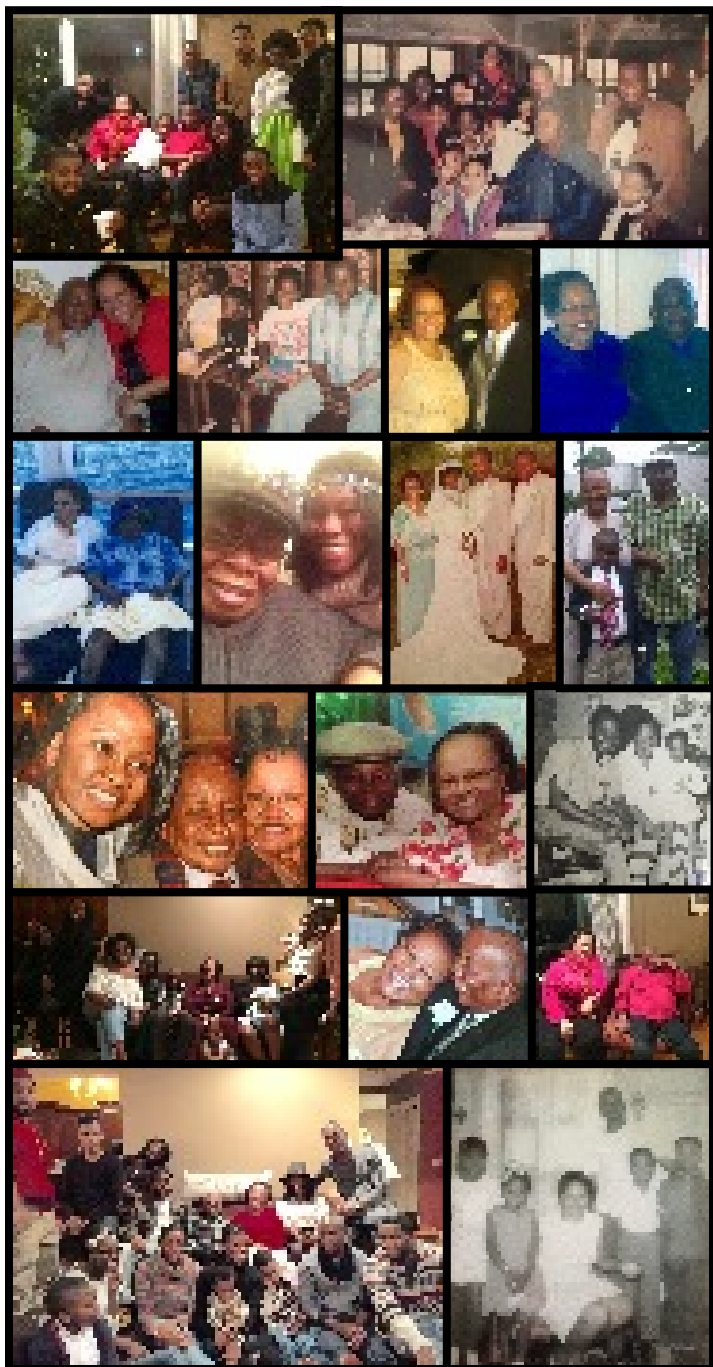

In 1957, Victor married the love of his life, Rita (Ward). He received the greatest joy from the birth of his children, Vickey, Victor, Arnett, Lesley and Andrea.

Victor made his transition to his resting place in Glory on Friday, July 1, 2016. He was predeceased by his parents Irene Maude and Hubert; his sister, Florence; brothers, Jack, Gaston, Winslow and a beloved nephew Winston Nedd.

Loved ones left to say thank you for so many beautiful memories are: his loving wife of 59 years, Rita; his children Vickey (Rohan), Victor (Allison), Arnett (Ann), Lesley (Ian) and Andrea; a beloved niece Ingrid Nedd-Thorne (Leyland); his grandchildren, Tiffany, Kacy, Gregory, Krista, Kee Kee, LaTasha, Travis, Charles, Rohan, Jr., Chyenne and Isaiah; his great grandchildren, Jeremiah, Timothy, Hudson and Amari, all of whom reside in New Jersey; sisters-in-law Herma Heber (Dennis Heber, Sr.) of Gulfport, Mississippi and Esther Maloney of New York; brother-in-law Stanislaus A. Scripture

“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth and rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

*For where your treasure is,
there your heart will be also.”*

Matthew 6: 19-21
