Obituary

Cynthia Jean Alexander (known as Cyn) was born May 23, 1959 in Manhattan, New York to her proud parents, Landreth and Delores Bute. She was the oldest of two. She went from labor to reward on June 24, 2016.

She went to elementary and high school in Newark, NJ.

She married at an early age. She was the proud mother of four children, (William Alexander preceded her in death in 2003).

Cynthia loved the Lord. She held firm to her beliefs. She meant what she said and she said what she meant. Cynthia loved to work and she loved to sing. In spite of her illness, she would just sing. As she weakened, she just smiled.

Cynthia leaves to cherish her memories her three children, Cherrelle Alexander, Shanique Alexander and James Bute; her brother, Landreth (Landy) Bute; her grandchildren, Kaniyah, Janique (Shanae), Zihere, Frier and Lalani. She loved her uncle, Adolphus and auntie, Rosalind; her nieces, nephews; and a host of cousins and friends will forever remember that beautiful smile.

I've Changed My Address

I've changed my address to Heaven

I've crossed the Great Divide.

I know there's no sorrow or crying,

Because I've reached the other side.

I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

That's the place where you'll find me.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

I bid this world goodbye.

I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.

I have no burdens or heartaches

and from tears I am now free.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

Where I will forever be.
