Obituary

Jessie Lee Mann Cole was born August 8, 1928 in Engelhard, North Carolina. She was the daughter of James and Maggie Mann.

Jessie was educated in the public school system of Engelhard, North Carolina. Jessie moved to Brooklyn, New York around 1947.

Jessie married Alandas Cole and from this union five children were born, Leon Cole, Ronnie Cole, Arlinda Cole Daniels and Bessie Cole (her baby Karl Cole preceded her in death).

Jessie became a member of the House of God Church in Brooklyn. She was a devoted and active member for many years until her health no longer allowed her to participate; even then she remained involve with her church.

Jessie was a loving mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, sister-in-law, and friend to many. Many knew of the struggle she had, but she always persevered. She was a proud, determined and loving person.

Jessie was preceded in death by siblings, Ola Gibbs, Ella Posey, Annie Marie Palmer, Nita Pearl Mann Tingle, Wilson Mann, James Thomas Mann and Robert Mann.

She leaves to mourn: her four children, Leon Cole of Brooklyn, Ronnie Cole of NYC, Arlinda Daniels (Jerry) of NYC and Bessie Cole of Brooklyn; grandchildren, Jonathan Cole, Kineta Daniels and Gerri Daniels; great grand, Darius Daniels; two sisters, Patricia Mann of Delaware and Deloris Andrews of Maryland; one brother-in-law, Joseph Posey of Brooklyn; one son-in-law, Jerry Daniels; and a host of wonderful nieces and nephews and other family and friends.

*Faith is having the courage to let go and believe in a power greater than yourself.
Jesus said even if you say to this mountain, "Be lifted up and thrown into the sea, it will be done." But more than words, Jesus
demonstrated the peace that comes with having faith.*

Our mom, Jessie,
always had faith.
