Obituary

Zakiya Sue Williams was born on December 28th, 1986 in New York, New York, the second of three children to Yvette Williams and was helped raised by Jack Early. She was educated in the New York City public school system and later in her life went to work for Duane Reade as a cashier and floor trainer then on to The Parks Department as a gardener.

Zakiya was a unique person who spoke her mind. She was the best mother she could be to her children and she incorporated whatever changes that were necessary to become a better parent, her children were her magnum opus...her greatest work. Zakiya was not perfect, nor did she pretend to be but she loved her family and reveled in being surrounded by those she loved and cared for.

Those of us that knew Zakiya best will remember her as an avid reader, there was no book that could be put in front of her without her picking it up and reading it. She will be remembered as being outspoken, often telling people the harsh truths that they did not want to face, she definitely had a way of making her presence known and felt and this may be the reason we loved her the most.

Zakiya departed this life on July 7th, 2016. She was preceded in death by her mother, Yvette Williams; brother, Timothy Little and aunts, Michelle and Mona. She leaves to cherish her memories and celebrate her life, her eldest daughter, Azmere Williams, 12 of Virginia, her middle child and only son, Tavion Morris, 11 of New York, her youngest daughter, Messiah McKenzie, 4 of New York; her grandmother, Ellen Williams of New York; father, Jack Early of New York; her only sister, Katrina Williams of Pennsylvania; nephews, Michael, Misoun, Kacen and Kellen; uncles, Gary, George, Lawrence, Derrick and Darryll; a god son, Skyler and a host of other relatives and friends.

Let us not mourn Zakiya's passing but instead celebrate the life she lived, for we shall see her again.
