Obituary

On this day we celebrate the home going of Charlesworth Mack.

Born to Eunice Roberts and Alfred Mack on June 26, 1938 in Antigua, Barbuda. He was the brother of Conrad Jarvis and the late Walter and Fredricka Jarvis.

Although he was born in Antigua, he spent most of his life in St. Croix U.S. Virgin Islands where he was a fisherman and a farmer.

He was affectionately known as “Winston” and also called “Reds” by those who knew him. He was a multitaled entrepreneur.

Winston leaves behind to cherish his memories, the mother of his children; Judy Hedrington, six children; Tanya, Candis, Winston, Sean, Eunice, and Ilean Mack, twenty grandchildren, two great grandchildren, six nieces, and six nephews.

We will always remember Reds as a mild tempered man with a contagious smile on his face.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
