Reflections of Life

Robert Tann was born March 3, 1956 in Jackson, North Carolina to the late James Howard Williams and the late Lorenzo Tann and Janet Taylor Tann.

Robert lived in Jackson, North Carolina until he journeyed to Paterson, New Jersey where he met and married Linda McCollum. This union lasted for thirty (30) years and they were blessed with two sons Robert Jr. Tann and Rashad Tann.

Robert worked for the Borough of Paramus as a Sanitation Engineer until retirement.

Robert enjoyed life and loved his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his siblings: Reverend Willie Tann, Shirley Wilkins, Ricky Tann, Mary Tann and Vivian Cooper and one son Jerry Hamilton.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife Linda Tann of Paterson New Jersey and their children: four sons: Robert Tann Jr., Rashad Tann, Michael McCallum and Alphonso Hamilton all from Paterson, New Jersey, four daughters: Mary Ann Williams (Richard) of Paterson, New Jersey, Kanja Hamilton of Clifton, New Jersey, Mignon Tann of Paterson New Jersey, Shalil McKinney of Paterson, New Jersey, four brothers: Joseph Tann of Jackson, North Carolina, Kenneth Cooper of Murfreesboro, North Carolina, Raymond Cooper of Northfork, Virginia and Gary Cooper Gaston, North Carolina, his three (3) sisters Jerlean Barrett of Paterson New Jersey, Levoria Tann of Bronx, New York, Sharon Cooper of Seaboard, North Carolina, mother-in-law Helen McCallum of Paterson, New Jersey, Six (6) sister-in-laws, Five (5) brother-in-laws, Twenty two (22) grandchildren, eight (8) great grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, relations and friend.

Robert My Love
How do I say goodbye,
To thirty (30) years of loving and caring and sharing.
How do I say goodbye,
To Glances exchanged between us that spoke volumes.
How do I say goodbye,
To memories and thoughts of all our many triumph,
that we were unsure of.
How do I say goodbye,
To the beat of your heart next to mine
that seems to sound out a melody.
How do I say goodbye,
To a free spirit that found more freedom in a marriage than out.
How Do I say goodbye,
To my life partner that showed me unconditional love, you don't!
I hang your picture in my heart until we meet again.

Love always you wife
Linda Tann
