Obituary

Sharon Ramos, of New York City, passed away on Wednesday, July 13, 2016, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was the beloved companion of Charles Thomas of New York City.

Sharon was born on December 17, 1963, in Brooklyn, New York, the daughter of Annie L. Ramos and Peter Ramos, Jr. Sharon worked at Williams Lea Inc. since 2007 as a reproduction supervisor where she had countless friends.

Besides her beloved, Charles, Sharon is survived by her: mother, Annie Ramos of New York City; brother, Maurice Ramos of New York City; sisters, Lori Ramos of Las Vegas and Jennifer Ramos of New York City.

Sharon also leaves behind her beloved nieces, Jessie Goetz and Nikiya Marilla; and her cherished great nephews and niece, Christopher Gerena, Xavier and Lily-Ann Goetz; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Peter Ramos, Jr.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
