Obituary

Daniel St. Hugh Henry aka “Wacky” was born on April 20th, 1989 at 11:30 p.m. in Jubilee Hospital, Kingston, Jamaica West Indies. He was the first born son to his mother, Nadene Annmarie Jackson. Daniel attended the Trinitarian Basic School after which he went to Calabar All Age School. At age 10, Daniel migrated to New York where he attended M.S. 144. He then went on to Evander Childs High School where he met long term friends who he considered to be family.

As a young man, Daniel had a passion for music, cars and security work. He adored his mother and if at any time anyone would speak badly about her, he would get upset. During his teenage years, Daniel and his mother encountered their rough paths but their bond was strong and their love for each other grew. They had a few things in common, namely, Nadene loves to cook and Daniel loved to eat. His favorite meals were jerk pork, stew peas and ackee and saltfish.

Daniel had a great heart, always helpful with whatever was asked of him. He was tough on the outside but soft and genuine on the inside. If he had anything, and you needed it, he would give it to you in a heartbeat.

As a child, Daniel had a passion to pursue a career as a police officer. He was not successful in that feat and instead worked diligently to become a Security Officer. Through his drive, motivation and determination, he became a Licensed Security Officer where he worked at Duane Reade, Walgreens and many other places.

Daniel's love for his children was unconditional. He will be remembered for his selfless care for others, especially when he cared for his siblings when his mother went to work. He was a brother and father to all. He will truly be missed for his dedication and his commitment to his family and friends.

Daniel is survived by his mother, Nadene Jackson, stepfather, Gerald McDonald, grandmothers, Dorraine Lindo and Elfreda Gayle, his grandfather; sisters, Shaiquanah Jackson and Shantel McDonald; brothers, Devante Jackson, Gerald McDonald and Deandre McDonald; aunts, Lakiesha Lindo, Anika Lindo and Marcia Phang; uncles, Derrick Levy, Maurice Levy and Jamal Lindo; children, Danayah Henry, Shakara Henry, Demirah Henry and Damoy Henry; as well as nephews, cousins and a host of die-hearted friends. He will be especially remembered by his friends that always came to his home to cut from school or just have fun until mommy came home and the party ended.

So as we gather here to bid him farewell and commemorate his life, let us forever remember him as the lively, dignified soul he was, a soul that brought joy and fulfillment to many and whose legacy will live on forever.

May Daniel's soul rest in eternal peace and may perpetual light shine upon him.
