Beyond The Sunset

So you went first and I remained to walk the road alone, I lived in memories garden dear, of happy days we'd known. In spring I waited for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue. In early fall when brown leaves fell, I'd catch a glimpse of you. I wanted to know each step you took, so I could take the same and if you listen closely dear you'll hear me call your name.

Obituary

ERVIN R. JONES

Ervin R. Jones was the only child born to the late William and Wilnet Shaw on January 12, 1940 in New Port News, VA.

Ervin attended elementary school in Virginia and later relocated to New Jersey where he graduated from Central High School in Newark, and in his later years retired as an Armed Security Officer for the Federal building in Newark.

Ervin was an avid Martial Artist expert, and was very fond of baseball where he played on a league in his earlier years. Ervin had a love for fine cars and anyone that knew him, knows that he also loved fine clothes and loved to dress!

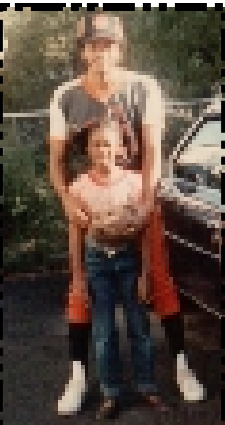

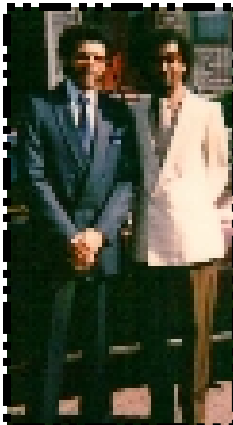

Ervin was a man that lived his life by his own terms. He was low-key, very private, yet out-spoken. Ervin had a kind heart and would give you the shirt off of his back, but if you didn't want the truth, don't ask Ervin because he would he tell you straight upfront what he thought, he didn't candy coat anything.

Ervin was married to the beautiful late Dolores Jones and to this Union two devoted children were born, Maurice and Jamilah Jones.

Another link in our family chain has been broken, but we will honor our parents memory for the rest of our lives with god's grace and guidance, as he will not leave us or forsake us...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Ervin leaves to cherish his memories: His loving son and daughter, Maurice and Jamilah Jones, step-son and daughter; Albert J. Brown and Debra Faulkner, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Ervin was preceded in death by his parents, William and Wilnet Shaw and his wife, Dolores Jones.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
