Obituary

LeRoy LeKwan “Loe” Fleming passed away suddenly on Monday, July 11, 2016 at the tender age of 27 years old.

LeRoy was born on May 10, 1989 at St. Luke's Hospital in New York City to Jenna Fleming and LeRoy Echols. Born with trembling lips we knew Leroy was a musical genius. Leroy attended Booker T. Washington Junior High School. He loved his family and everything having to do with family. On February 16, 2003, LeRoy walked 18 blocks in a Presidents' Day Blizzard to make sure his Auntie was okay. He would give his last if it meant the ones he loved were well. Music was his life and in his words it “showed him the way”. Through his music he was able to express all of his thoughts and feelings. His gift made room for him to fulfill his heart's desire.

LeRoy Fleming known as "Buddah" by family and close friends is survived by: his mother and step-father, Jenna Fleming and Anthony Matthews; his father, LeRoy L. Echols, Jr.; his maternal grandmother, Jennie Fleming; his paternal grandmother, Ethel L. Echols; step-grandmother, Kathy Aldridge; three brothers, Denzel Fleming, Jeremiah Fleming, and Lameek Echols; two sisters, Sharice Miller and Anisha Jeffries; aunts, Nia Howell, Nina Aldridge, Cheryl and Nichole Echols; uncles, Milton Aldridge, Bashiri Phillips, David Aldridge and Les Echols; nieces, Kamora, Khamani and Alyssa Fleming; nephews, LaKwan, Evan, and Tristian Fleming; and a host of cousins, friends and people who loved him. Leroy also leaves to cherish his life an unborn son, LJ and his mother, Kadeema Alston.

He is preceded in death by maternal grandfather, Milton Phillips, Sr., paternal grandfather, LeRoy Echols III, and his brother, LaeKwon Echols, cousins, Huey Phillips and Travis Berry, Jr.

He Wished No One a Last Farewell

*He wished no one a last farewell,
nor even said goodbye.*

*He was gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

*They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,*

But time so far only proves

How much we miss him yet,

*God gives us strength to face it,
And courage to bear the blow.*

But what it meant to “love” and lose him

No one will ever know.
