Obituary

Maggie A. Haywood was born on September 18th 1939, in North Carolina to her mother, Ethel Baldwin Haywood and father, Murphey Haywood.

She was a very faithful devout church member. She served as the pastors aide president and also on the usher board. She loved to see her people and feed them. Nobody was ever a stranger in Maggie's home; everyone was welcome. She also loved to travel, she was always "READY" to go. She loved to dress, she was "SHARP" at all times.

She is preceded in death by her siblings, James A. Haywood, Johnny M. Haywood, Sam Haywood, Bobby Haywood and Ethel Lindsey and three children Tonya R. Haywood, Quincy Haywood and James Haywood and her goddaughter.

Memories will forever be cherished by her children, Juanita (Losie) Holland, Kenneth (Mary) Haywood, Denise R. Haywood and Magdalence Haywood and many other relatives and friends. She also leaves to cherish her memories by nine grandchildren and nine great grandchildren; her godson, Lee Livingston; her god-daughter, Brittany and daughter-in-law, Jessica Haywood.

My Heart

*My protector, my provider, my superwoman, my everything!
When the world was against me you were always there to comfort me.
You took care of my brothers and I when no one else would.
You taught us how to be men, how to love each other and to put God first.
You showed me what the true definition of family means.
No one could ever replace you and what you instilled in me.
If it wasn't for you I don't know where I would be today.
I am forever grateful to have had you in my life.
As you would say God willing I will see you again!
You're my heart, my protector, my provider,
my superwoman, my everything!
Grandma, I'm going to miss you.
I love you for eternity!*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
