Obituary

Rahjan Nassirruddine Robinson was born to Acquenetta and the late George Robinson Jr. aka Musa on April, 15th 1971 in Trenton, NJ.

The Robinson family resided in Newark, NJ until relocating to Carteret, NJ where Rahjan began his early education in the Carteret school system. In 1982 the family moved to Orange, NJ where they remained and Rahjan (Baby Rah or Rah Rah) attended and graduated from Orange High School. He also attended the Laurinburg Institute Preparatory School in Laurinburg, NC.

From birth Rah lit up the room with his smile, sense of humor and comedic antics. Rah had a gentlemanly charm about himself that was priceless. Rah was an avid dog lover and his dream was to become a chef, he was passionate about cooking and sharing his cuisine with family and friends.

People young and old were drawn to Rah because of his loving and kind spirit. Rah never looked down on anyone unless he was picking them up.

As a child and an adult Rah was very sickly; however, Baby Rah never allowed his illness to cripple him.

Rahjan leaves to cherish him memory his loving mother, Acquenetta Robinson; devoted companion, Sonya Parker; three sons, Davonne and Toshon Scott and Rahjan Robinson Jr.; two daughters, Ebony and Ivorie Lewter; ten grandchildren; four brothers, Duane Robinson, Ar-Raheem Williams, Larry Washington Hassan Tarik Mc Eachin; five sisters, Shuranda Hemphill, Kesha Robinson, Shaka Robinson, Samantha Robinson and Mi-Asia Robinson; four nieces, Essence and Mahogany Robinson, Asia and Autumn Hemphil; four nephews, Dhkir Robinson, Al-Lateef Ferrer, Darryl Edwards and Al- Fuquan Robinson Crawford; two aunts, Beverly Marshall and Sylvia Marshall; one brother-in-law, Robert Hemphill; one sister-in-law, Jameelah Robinson; and a host of close cousins and friends too numerous to mention.

Rahjan was preceded in death by his father the late George Robinson and two nieces, Rabbiyah Toliver and Lateefah Dortch.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
