Obituary

Michael David Young (aka “Mizike” or “Zike”) was born on February 28, 1964 in Coney Island Hospital in Brooklyn, New York to the late Peggy Margaret Young and Maurice Williams.

Michael attended the public school system in New York City. Michael studied graphic arts at Art & Design High School. Michael was known to create animated pictures and graffiti art. He was also known to create and rap lyrics that were positive and funny. Michael’s most memorable job was working as a security officer at NBC studio on the Cosby Show set. Michael often spoke of how much fun he had working at NBC and meeting all of the stars who visited the Cosby Show set.

Michael always stayed in contact with family and friends via Facebook or by visiting them in person. Michael always loved a lot of attention. He also liked to have the last word. Michael’s favorite sayings were, “I’m Mizike the one you like” and “I’m the baby.”

On July 22, 2016, Michael David Young departed this life. Though predeceased by his baby son, Jahlil Young, mother, Peggy Young, father, Maurice Williams, two sisters, Geraldine Young and Elaine Young and brother, Adam Young, Michael leaves fond memories to be cherished by his: five sons, Michael, Shakeem, Tyrell, Daniel and Maurice; one daughter, Sarrina; several grandchildren; two sisters, Christine (aka “Betty) and Mary Ann; two brothers, Barry and Anthony; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends whom he loved.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it.

Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;

That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen
