Obituary

Joan Massenburg was born on June 25, 1940 to the late Roscoe Tillery, Sr. and Elouquise Tillery in Newark, NJ.

She attended elementary school at Morton Street School and later graduated high school at South Side High School. She married Joseph Massenburg, Sr. in 1965 they remained married for the next forty-five years until his death in August of 2010. Joan in her early years worked on Monroe Street in Newark, NJ at Mechanical Art. She then started working at Fortunoff in 1986 and she remained there until she retired in 2007.

On August 6, 2016 she was called home to join her mother and father, Elouquise and Roscoe Tillery, her brother, Roscoe Jr. and Donald Tillery, her sisters, Gloria Banks and Delores Hunt and her niece, Monica Banks.

She leaves behind: her son, Joseph Massenburg, Jr., her sister, Mary Davis and her niece, Adrienne Tillery; and a long host of cousins, relatives and friends.

Joan will always be remembered for her warm smile and loving and compassionate nature.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
