Reflections of Life

Koshaad “Moothang” Sha-bre Kojack James was born on October 6, 1995 at Barnert Memorial Hospital in Paterson, NJ to Tiffany Benbow and Terence James.

Koshaad lived in Paterson and attended School #6, School #10 and Great Falls Academy. Koshaad was loved by all. He was well known and loved by everyone who knew him. Koshaad was also known as “Moothang”, if you knew him, you knew he was the one that loved to play basketball and throw dice and you could count on him. His smile and laughter will truly be missed by all.

Koshaad was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Herbert Watkins and paternal grandfather, Roosevelt James.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: a daughter, Ameia James; mother, Tiffany Benbow; father, Terence James; brothers, Koshawn James and Camarre Benbow; maternal grandmother, Shirley Benbow and paternal grandmother, Mary James; longtime friend and companion, Starasia Bellamy; special aunt, Stephanie Benbow; niece, Kleigh James; special cousins, Rhondasia and Zahkia Haywood; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is something that no one can explain, it is made of deep devotion and sacrifice and pain, it is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may for nothing can destroy it or take that love away... It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking, and it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking... it believes beyond believing when the world around condemns, and it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems ... It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation, and it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation ... a many splendor miracle man cannot understand and another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.
