Obsequies

Curtis L. Anderson was born in Cumberland, Virginia to the late William Sr. and Marinda B. Anderson on December 25, 1954. He was reared in the home with his six siblings. He departed this life on Thursday, August 11, 2016, peacefully in his sleep.

Curtis was educated in the Cumberland County Public School system. He then relocated to Jersey City, New Jersey. He was employed at Jetro Cash and Carry. Years later, he moved to Raleigh, North Carolina with his daughter, Stephanie, and family. He then moved back to Jersey City, New Jersey where he spent the last years of his life with his sister, Bernice.

Curtis loved to laugh and his favorite saying was “Forget about it”. He loved spending time with his grandchildren. His favorite football team was the Redskins. One of the happiest moments of his life was meeting the Globetrotters at a game which he attended with his grandchildren.

Curtis was preceded in death by his parents, William Sr. and Marinda B. Anderson.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, three daughters: Tawanna (Byron) Walker of NV, Stephanie Hill of NJ, and Tyis Sweeney of NJ; one son: Richard Sweeney of NJ; ten grandchildren: Ja’Qwaun Dortch, Stefon Hill and Jahar Hill, Johnny Sweeney, Tauheedah Sweeney, Jaivon Sweeney Nadir Sweeney, Mariana Sweeney, Giovanni Hogan and Kamari Sweeney; three great grandchildren: Zahmir, Ja-Nylah and Cason Sweeney; three brothers: William Jr., of VA, Raymond (Shirley) of VA, and Beryl Anderson of NJ; three sisters: Bernice Mayo of NJ, Carrie (Bobby) Roberson of GA and Cheryl Bolden of VA; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

What God Has Promised

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.
