Obituary

Aneida Daniels-Bellamy was born on April 30, 1986 in the Bronx, New York. She passed away on August 18, 2016 in Yorkers, New York at the tender age of thirty. Although she passed at a very young age, she was a well accomplished young lady.

She received her formal education in New York. She developed many skills while in school, which helped her to take care of herself and her family. She became a childcare provider.

Aneida Daniels met and married Raleigh Bellamy and from this union they had several children. She was a very caring mother and she loved all of her children very much. She would like for each of them to become very loving, but strong individuals, letting no one take advantage of them.

Aneida will be truly missed as she is survived by her family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
