Reverend Curtis Norris, Eulogist

Obsequies

Curtis St. Patrick Thomas, was born on September 1, 1974 in Kingston, Jamaica to George and Veronica Thomas. He was the Eldest of three sons blessed to this union.

Curtis, better known as to his family and friends as, "Fingers" arrived in Newark, New Jersey at the young age of 12. What a great birthday present he arrived on September 1, 1986. A whole new world was waiting for him to conquer. Curtis lived on Sunset Avenue for five years, until he graduated from Westside High School, Newark, NJ.

Curt was indeed a renaissance man. there wasn't anything he couldn't do with his hands. he was a carpenter to the core! He eventually opened his own business the, "Sugar Shack". he was a true entrepreneur.

Curt possessed a charming, and captivating personality. he had a big heart, and even a charismatic, and bigger smile. Anyone that knew Curt, knew that Curt.....had to have the last word. He was a true friend, he loved everyone. he loved his friends as much as he loved his family. He considered many of his friends as brothers. Curt had an exquisite taste for the finer things in life, clothing, sneakers, cars and his hats.

Curtis St. Patrick Thomas will continue to live in the hearts of those he loved, and those that loved him; two loving children Yahnai and Renee' Thomas; precious grandchild Camille Thomas; His first hero, and sweetheart, George and Veronica Thomas; his brothers Pete, and Craig Thomas; and he adored stepdaughters Darrielle, Jessica; Stephanie and the "Isabella Fellas"; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

To My Daddy

*I can't overlook time when time is past due
It's so many goals and targets he didn't get to
The sight of his first grandchild is very heart warming
His soul and thought was slowly reforming
He wasn't just material to humanity eyes
The joy my dad brings to the lows and highs
And my opinion of him will never change going forward
He is a outstanding person and bravery will be honoured
He left his daughters a symbol of unity
And to acknowledge the directory of opportunity
His moms teachings was took to a deep part in his heart
Hopping he can see her one more time before he departs
The Lord swept him up into his gracious hands
And hope sooner or later his family understands.*

*Love his Daughter,
Renee*
