Obituary

Enid Stewart was born on January 2nd, 1921 in Havana, Cuba to parents, Brownie Miller and Tiny Williamson. She was the first of three kids which included herself, Mable Grant (sister) and Daniel Grant (brother). They would both precede her in death.

Enid was schooled in Jamaica before moving back to Cuba where she opened a Hairdressing business. She would later migrate to the United States where she worked in the hospitality industry.

In the US she met and married her husband, Clifford Stewart. They made their home in the Bushwick Section of Brooklyn. They enjoyed entertaining, partying and traveling, especially cruises. Sadly, this union would break when Mr. Stewart passed away.

Enid was a loving and generous person who was always ready and willing to help her family and friends in whatever way she could. Though she never had any children of her own, she was more than a mother to many.

Enid's health began to deteriorate after what has been a long and prosperous life, loaded with memories. It wasn't long before we knew she would be departing to be with her heavenly father. On the evening of September 3rd, 2016, after 95 years of a vibrant and pulsating life, she went to join her father.

Enid will be missed by: Melroy Grant-Romero (niece); Keeling Grant (nephew); Camille Romero and Kimeisha Grant (grand nieces); Raymond Romero Jr. and Jaime Grant (grand nephews); Audrey, Lloyd, Althea, Mollie, Gace-Ann and Carol (step children); Pamela, Latoya, Sebrena and Eric (God children), and many more friends and acquaintances.

Enid has left us to be with her heavenly Father..... Sleep on Enid.
May your soul rest in peace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
