Obituary

On Wednesday, August 31, 2016 God in his infinite wisdom called to rest the soul of our beloved James H. Clark.

James was born on October 2, 1939 to the late Booker Lewis and Mary Mageline Clark in Crystal Hill, Virginia (Halifax County). In 1959 James migrated to New Jersey to make a life for himself. He worked at Hasco Co., for twenty-six years until the company moved. He also worked at Shoprite in Kearny, and Elizabeth General Hospital, in Elizabeth, NJ, where he retired.

James loved to go fishing with his friends when he was not on the grill cooking up some mean ribs for the family. He loved to watch television and the remote was his best friend. James sat daily on the front porch, cracking jokes with the neighbors and making them laugh as they walked pass. He would say "I was born at night but not last night." Most of the children were known, as "You are not the sharpest knife in the draw." James believed in God he loved to sing and drive his grandchildren to school. James is a loving husband, father, brother, uncle, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend to many. Another favorite quote is, "The Lord fix it for me, I don't worry about nothing anymore."

James leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Mabel Tarver-Clark; children Renee (Warren, Jr.) Dixon of NJ; Andrea (Delson) Muhammad of NC; Qwhadree and Elvina Clark of New Jersey; Bridget, Randolph, Tanya, and Yolanda Lindore of NJ; Keith and Kelley Tarver of NJ; Jimmy Jr. (Marilyn) Tarver of PA; Rev. Pauline (Gregory) Lachish and Angel Jenkins of NJ; sisters Cookie C., Rebecca and Delores Clark of DC; Dorothy, Patricia Clark and Fannie Clark of MD, brothers Felix (Franciene) Clark of NC; Roscoe Clark of DC; aunt Grace Winbush of VA; twenty-six grandchildren, seven great-grands and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, special friend, Bennie Lomox; the Skeete family and church family of New Jerusalem Temple.

Come With Me

God saw you getting tired
A cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Your tender hands at rest.
God took you home to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a Lovely card Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, If so we saw it there,
Perhaps you spoke words of kindness, as only a friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

*The family of James H. Clark wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to the family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
