Obituary

Ira Green was born on May 27, 1932 in Powellsville, North Carolina to General and Martha Wynn. After high school, Ira moved to New York City to attend nursing school. This was where she met and later married her love, Livingston and where they also raised their five children.

Ira was a beloved mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, great grandmother and friend. She would do anything for anyone with a smile.

She loved traveling, cooking in her kitchen and attending Gospel concerts. If there was a Gospel show or concert in the area you could always find her there. Ira also enjoyed having family dinners with all of her children and grandchildren surrounding her. On Monday nights you could not call and talk to her because she would tell you she was busy watching her wrestling. QVC was another favorite of hers, and she loved ordering things for her family. Ira found great joy in life and passed that joy onto everyone that she met. She lived a full, beautiful life and she will always be remembered with warmth and love. Ira Green will truly be missed and will never, ever be forgotten.

Ira was predeceased by her husband, Livingston Green, sisters, Mary Francis Bass and Elritta Moore, sons, Gary Green and Michael Green, grandson, Alexander Tatum.

Ira is cherished and remembered by: her sisters, Phyllis Hyman and Martha Cherry; daughters, Belinda Tatum and Edith Joseph; son, Livingston Green, Jr.; daughters-in-law, Denise Green and Annette Smalls, sons-in-law, Alexander Tatum and Kenville Campbell; granddaughters, Gwendolyn, Shaneen, Crystal, Katrina, Candace and Tichina; grandsons, Anthony, Livingston III, Brandon, Neville, Tarik and Nazir; great grandchildren, Ijaya, Ameyah, Brandon, Jr., Jourdan, Jaeden, Alanna and Kadence; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family members and friends who have shared her life while on earth.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgement

The family of Ira Green acknowledges with grateful appreciation the kindness shown to us during our hours of bereavement. The love that you have shown and the support you have given us has enhanced our ability to endure. Words cannot express the gratitude we feel. We would also like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Perlberger for their continuous love and support for our family over the years. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless and sustain each of you. Again, many thanks.
