Life Story

A Time To Be Born

Sadie Mae Clark was born in Hardaway, Alabama on August 23, 1940 to the late Annie M. and Tommy L. Richardson. Sadie was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Clark; one sister, Josie Richardson; five brothers: Arthur, Henry, Elijah, Tommy Lee and Alphonso.

A Time to Learn

Sadie was educated in the Hardaway Alabama School system. She moved to Perth Amboy, New Jersey in the early 1950's.

A Time To Love

Sadie fell in love and married Kenneth Clark on August 19, 1961. To that union was born, three sons: David, Glenn and Kenneth.

A Time to Live

Sadie was employed early in her career with Emerson Quiet Cool. She later began working in the Perth Amboy Public School System in the food service department until retirement after 22 years of service.

A Time to Laugh

Sadie enjoyed spending time in the church. In her younger life, she loved to dance. She was an avid reader and shopper. She spent quality time with her family going to all activities with her children, and later her grandchildren.

A Time to Serve

Sadie was a member of St. James AME Zion Church where she sung God's praises with the Seasoned Saints Choir. She served as a Missionary and with the Conference Workers Ministry. She was a great supporter of the church. She served the Lord with gladness and a cheerful heart. She had a gift of hospitality.

A Time to Rest

On Thursday, September 22, 2016 after a short illness, Sadie completed her purpose on earth. She was carried into the arms of the Lord to her final resting place. Surely, we will miss her, but we rejoice in knowing that her soul has found rest, perfect peace and everlasting joy.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
