Obituary

Adele Jackson was born on December 18, 1944 in the Bronx, New York. Adele was the second daughter of the late Alberta and Henry Jackson, of the Virgin Islands. She was the fourth born out of five children, three boys, Leroy, David, and Roy Jackson; and a sister, Lona Jackson. The young Adele grew up on 169th Street and Clinton Avenue in the Bronx. During her later years she resided at Encore 49 Residence.

While growing up in the Bronx, Adele attended P.S. 63 and Junior High School 55. As a young girl she spent her weekends learning tap dance. Adele and her family attended church regularly at Lutheran Church of Transfiguration in Harlem. In 1963, Adele gave birth to her first child, Modessa Avent. At the age of 25, she gave birth to her son, Derrick Jackson. In 1979, Adele met the love of her life, Charles "Charlie Roc" Murphy.

Throughout her lifetime, Adele worked various temporary jobs including being a home maker, film developer and her most recent a clerk for Chase Bank.

"You need to know!" Adele was known for her sense of humor, good cooking, loving spirit and ability to dress her a#% off. She took pride in maintaining her appearance and being a New York Knicks fan. In 2002, Adele moved to and called home Encore 49 Residence. She served on the tenant committee and was loved by everyone in her building.

In Adele's home going she joins her parents and her siblings. She leaves to rejoice in her life: her loving spouse of 37 years, Charles Murphy; her two children, Modessa Avent and Derrick Jackson; son-in-law, Johnny who she nicknamed John John, she took him as her second son and she loved him deeply; her two grandchildren, Avianca LeBrun and Monique LeBrun; strong family supporters, Mr. and Mrs. Natalie Huebsch; and a host of loving friends. Adele we love you and will keep you alive in our hearts.

John 14:1-5

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?
