Obituary

Frederick. P. Hammond better known as Peter was born April 17, 1954 to the late William Owens Sr. and Fannie Mae Hammond. Born and raised in Harlem Peter was the eldest male child of five. He was raised by the late Herbert Brown Sr. and Jennie Mae Brown, were he then gained four more brothers.

Peter received his education at Brandeis H.S. His last place of employment was at Fedex as a courier.

He leaves behind: his son, Sean Alexander Durran Hammond; his brothers, William Hammond, Frank Brown, Robin Brown, Herbert Brown Jr. and Jesse Boseman. There are tons of cousins, nieces and nephews too many to name but he loved them all.

Peter loved to cook and dance he just lived his life free and happy. He was a lover of music and people and anyone that came in contact with him loved him. Peter loved to care for others from the time he was born, from the cradle to the grave he took care of others. His love for life and his laughter will be greatly missed. SIP

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
    I turned my back and left it all.
    I could not stay another day.
    To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
    If my parting has left a void,
    Then fill it up with remembered joy.
    A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
    Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
    My life's been full, I savored much.
    Good friends, good times,
    a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
    Don't lengthen it
    now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
