Obituary

Elizabeth 'Bradford' Dash, lovingly called “Tot”, was born February 21, 1929 to the late Tessie Josephine 'Jackson' and Lanie Bradford in Sumter, South Carolina.

She migrated to Brooklyn, New York in 1947, where she attended public school and graduated from Sarah Jay Hale High. In 1950, Elizabeth Bradford met and married Leon Dash. They raised and instilled in their seven children the following values: to remember God in the days of their youth, to show themselves friendly, to protect their family, and to love and pray for one another. Her children understood that they were blessed to be a blessing.

Elizabeth's career paths lead her to a Head Cook position at the Martin De Pores Daycare Center and a Home Attendant service provider at the Cabbs Home Health Agency. Upon permanently retiring, Elizabeth Dash pursued and dedicated her life to being a Wife, Mom, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Deaconess, Prayer Warrior, and Mother of the church. She and her baby sister, Dorothy Ward, were known as two peas in a pod, 'Tot' and 'Dot' as they carried out their religious responsibilities at Liberty Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. Mother Elizabeth Dash's secret recipes for Bean Pie and homemade biscuits were coveted. She had a keen sense (gift) of discernment and possessed the following characteristic traits and attributes: Loving, friendly, respectful, grateful, humble, passionate, compassionate, generous, tenderhearted, strong, hospitable, bold as a lion and harmless as a dove. Her motto was, “It doesn't cost you anything to speak.”

The following preceded Elizabeth Dash's departure from this life on Wednesday, September 28, 2016, in Manhattan, New York: her brother, Linnie Bradford Jr., Sumter, SC, her daughter, Rosalind Dash, Brooklyn, NY and son, Vincent Cooke, Brooklyn, NY. Elizabeth 'Bradford' Dash leaves to cherish her memory: Her husband, Leon Dash; Her daughters, Joan (Dwight) and Summiya; Her sons, Ghais (Priscilla), Gerard (Demetria), Tarik (Barbara); Her sister, Rev. Dorothy Ward; Her grandchildren, Yvette, Bahkeem, Nailah, Ghais Ibn, Taliyah, Sabree, Khaliah, Rahmell, Gerard Jr., Jaiah and Jaymel (Twins), Tatiana; Her Great grandchildren, Minna, Shakia, Ahkeil, Khalil, Taheem, Tariq, Sade, Shaniya, Joel, Zachi and Cameren; A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Proverbs 31:10-15

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

John 3: 16,17
