Our Mother

*A Strong willed woman, so set in her ways
One of Strength and determination, and never a haze
She was so understanding and never judgmental
With always a helpful word of advice
In good times, and in rough times, it was always precise.*

*Wisdom comes with age, or so they say
I believe that's a saying that will never stray
She's told me for weeks that it was her time
I knew she was tired, but couldn't let go
In tears I saw her sinking
I watched her fade away.
She suffered much in silence
She fought so hard to stay
She faced her task with courage
And her spirit did not bend
And still she kept on fighting until the very end
God saw her getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around her and whispered "Come with me."
So when I saw her sleeping so peaceful, free from pain
I could not wish her back to suffer that again.
We love you always Mommy and we wish you a welcome home.*

Love Always and Forever
Your Children, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren
