Obituary

Tracy Brown was born in Charleston, South Carolina to Leroy and Geneva Brown on December 7, 1962.

Tracy started her life in Charleston, South Carolina with her brothers, Terence and Timothy. She was raised by her great-grandma, Anna. At the tender age of twelve years old, she came to New York to join her parents and siblings. She enjoyed life. She was very outgoing, bubbly and protective of her siblings. They all knew if she was around they were well protected. She loved learning. She loved listening to music, reading, and her soap operas.

She completed her studies at Murray Bergtraum and entered the workforce. Early on she went to start her family and gave birth to three children, which she loved dearly and dedicated her life to.

To many Tracy will be remembered as an extremely strong and humbled woman, who enjoyed having a good time. She enjoyed time spent with family and friends. Tracy was known for her dedicated work ethic and strong commitment for helping others, even if it meant foregoing her own wants and needs.

Tracy is survived by: her children and their spouses, Anna and Robertson; Takeem and Ebony; and Finola; her siblings, Terence, Timothy, Tristam, Tedi and Tara; her grandchildren, Evan, Ethan, Aaron, Aayden, Mason, Erica, Damien, Deziah, Adonis, Synceriti and Skylah; brother-in-law, Terence; nephews and nieces, Desean, Terrence, Letrice and Taylor; aunts, Juanita, Eurie, Genevie, Admonia, and Unonna; uncles, Thurgood and Nathaniel; and a whole host of extended family and friends.

Tracy was preceded in death and has joined her parents, Leroy and Geneva, her brother and best friend, Tyrone, her nephew, Isaiah, her aunt, Carrie and her great grandma and grandma, Anna and Rosalee.

Remember Me

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful I will never return,
I am at peace with myself and the Lord,
I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen but I can be heard,
So remember me in your heart and thoughts,
Remember me in your memories,
Remember me of the times we loved,
Remember me of the times we laughed,
Remember me of the times we cried,
Remember me of the times we fought
And always remember me of the times we lived together.
I am resting in peace with the highest hope that some day we shall all unite again in God's Kingdom.*
