To My Nay-Nay

Words cannot describe the love you have given me.
My heart will mend but the pain is everywhere.
Sleep well my baby. Till my wings cover yours and we fly to heaven together.

Mom

To Hanniyah

All those years you have helped me face every hurdle, every disappointment and every struggle that lies ahead by standing by me and supplying me with all the strength I needed to climb the great mountain called life. Indeed my best friend and one call away.

Sleep well my angel I love you
Until the earth is no more

Memories

Hanniyah J. Anderson

was born September 15th, 1992

to Crystal Anderson and Rasheed Smallwood.

Hanniyah attended the East Orange School District until graduating in 2010.

Hanniyah was a gift from God to all of us. She was known for her Bright Brown Eyes, her distinct laugh, her fashion sense, and of course for speaking her mind. She enjoyed music, spending time with her family and doing hair. Hanniyah's best friends and love of her life was her daughter, Nyla and her mom, Crystal. They could always be seen together.

God granted Hanniyah her wings on September 29, 2016. Hanniyah's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by her understood that the quality of her existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which she was with us.

Hanniyah reminded us that life should be celebrated. Although we will miss her dearly, she will always live in our hearts.

Memories of Hanniyah will live through: her beautiful Daughter, Nyla Ali Hill; Parents, Crystal Anderson and Rasheen Smallwood; Step Father, Mark Paige; Grandparents, Antionette Anderson, Howard Jones and Denise Diallo; Siblings brothers and sisters from her Dad; her cousins who were more like siblings to her Rasheedah, Aisha, Tyshaunnah, Ashley, Nyraan, Somar, April, Jessica, Karl, Thaycha, Jasmine, Ebony, Tiquan, and Maurice her big baby. She also leaves a host of aunts and uncles along with many special friends.

Sleep well Angel!

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
Special thanks to Bishop Barbara P. Glanton
