Obituary

Lennett Holmes-Lane, affectionately known as “Auntie Nett” to her nieces and nephews passed away on October 6, 2016. Lennett was born on June 30, 1965 at Queens General Hospital in Jamaica, New York to Walter L. Holmes, Jr. (who preceded her in death) and Lennett Holmes. She spent the first twenty years of her life in Harlem, New York.

Lennett graduated from Murray Bertraum High School where she excelled in secretarial science. She went on to attend Borough of Manhattan Community College and Lehman College in the Bronx, where she studied business administration.

In May 2003, she married Randy Lane and they made their home in the Bronx, New York. People who knew Lennett would say that she was a kind, loving person who loved to laugh.

She also had a beautiful singing voice and would sometimes sing background vocals for her brother Walter. Lennett was a great cook and she loved to prepare dishes for her family during the holidays.

Lennett is survived by: her mother, Lennett Holmes; sister, Loriann Holmes; brother, Walter L. Holmes, III (April Holmes); nephews, Walter L. Holmes, IV and Malcolm S. Wheaton; nieces, Maria N. Holmes, Sasha A. Holmes, Briana S. Holmes and Maia N. Wheaton; great nephew, Sheron L. Rudolph; and a host of family and friends who love her dearly.

Miss

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,*

Me,

*Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

But

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,*

Let

And each must go alone.

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

Me

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do

Miss me-but let me go.

Go
