Reflections of Life

Burnis Norman was born January 2, 1942 in Haddock, GA. He was the son of the late Obdie and Geraldine Norman.

“Bunch” as he was affectionately known was a devoted father and brother. He was educated in the Paterson School system and was employed by the City of Paterson at the Department of Public Works.

A faithful member of the Christ Temple Baptist Church in Paterson, which he joined in 2007 under the leadership of the late Rev. Gregory C. Turner. He was always present and never missed a Sunday. He considered himself the best dressed person in church.

He departed this life and entered eternal rest on Sunday, October 9, 2016 at the St. Joseph’s Regional Medical Center Paterson.

Bunch leaves to cherish precious memories: two daughters, Monica Norman and Janice (James) Cumming of GA; two sisters, Dora Fleming and Vanessa Brooks; one grandson, Marcus Roberson; one great grandchild, Tanyeshia Hooks; three aunts, Lottie Harris of GA, Hannah Stevens of Paterson and Willie Mae Stevens of Delaware; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and loved ones.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.
