Obituary

Nancy P. Williams was born on May 21, 1931 in Hemingway, South Carolina. She was one of ten children born to Author Brown and Essie Brown.

Nancy was fifteen years old when she migrated north and finally settled in Newark, NJ. She graduated from East Side High School in Newark. Nancy worked as a nurses aid and a school district employee for thirty years and then finally retired.

Nancy was a very family oriented person and cherished each and every one of her family members and friends. She had a giving and forgiving heart and touched us all in one way or another.

Nancy married Marvin Williams and to this union they were blessed with two children, David and Leonard.

She is survived by her two sons, David and Leonard; one sister, Rose Barr; sister-in-law, Almeta Brown; grandchildren, Zachary, Tyler, Travis, Nicole and Miranda; and a host of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her sisters and brothers, Janie Ayers, Hattie Cokley, George Brown, Lylis Childress, Minnie Scott, Essie Price and James Brown.
