Obituary

Albert Pernel Anderson, Jr. was born on May 31, 1932, in Harlem, New York and departed October 13, 2016. He was the eldest son of Bertha and Albert Anderson, Sr. He had one older sister, Ella and three brothers, Anthony, Harold and Clarence.

Albert, Jr. was raised on 133rd Street in Harlem, New York and attended the local public schools. He was drafted into the Army in 1956. He served his country during the Korean War and left the Army after completion of service with a honorable discharge. After his service in the Army, he obtained a job as a silk screen printer at Bonn R Creations.

He married Janice Davis (deceased) on May 2, 1960. This marriage produced three children, Albert III, Gary (deceased) and Lance, and daughter, Hazel from a previous marriage. Albert, Jr. and Janice Anderson were married 43 years before she departed this life in 2003.

“Junior” as he was affectionately known was a caring family man with a hearty laugh and smile. He lived at a senior's development in his last few years. He was an independent man who cooked, cleaned and attended doctors' appointments on his own. He refused assistance unless absolutely necessary. He relished quality time with his family, especially his grands and great grandchildren. He loved to cook. During the holidays, he and Berta would cook the turkey, but his specialty was that ham. He would glaze that ham until it look like a shiny new penny! We the family will cherish these memories and be forever grateful for his kind heart and spirit.

He is survived by: two sons, Albert III (daughter-in-law, Berta); son, Lance; daughter, Hazel; brother, Clarence (sister-in-law, Emily); sister-in-law, Sheila; sister-in-law, Lula; grandchildren, Wykiem, Shaniqua, Kenisha, Kadeem, Malique and Brian; great grandchildren, Isaiah, Lea, Nevaeh and Reginay; and a host of extended family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
