Obituary

Leroy David Outerbridge, Jr. affectionately known as “Butch”, “Pep” and “Pepperhead” was born August 23, 1949 to Leroy Outerbridge, Sr. and Juanita Outerbridge in New York, New York. He departed this life on Friday, October 28, 2016 at 7:36pm.

Leroy attended P.S. 90 elementary school, Middle School 139 and Louis D. Brandeis High School. He later worked at Quick Copy, Xerox and Clearly Gottlieb Law Firm.

Leroy later in his life became a NA advocate and public speaker where he shared his story to encourage and touch others' lives as he also was a mentor. Leroy was a well dressed man with a cool, calm and collective personality. He was always sharing jokes and always smelled good. He also loved bicycle riding. Leroy was a loving, caring, gentlemen with a big smile that could light up a room.

Leroy leaves to cherish his memory: his one son, Leroy "Raheem" Outerbridge, Jr.; one grandson, Amir Outerbridge; one granddaughter, Ariana Outerbridge; his longtime partner, Teresa; two aunts, Betty Jenkins and Carol Outerbridge; one uncle, Ronald Outerbridge; and a host of cousins and extended family members and friends.

I'm Home

Now I am gone, release me, let me go!
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears;
Be happy that we had so many beautiful years.
I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown.
But now it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve for me awhile if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on;
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you cannot see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile,
And say "Welcome Home!"
