Reflections of Life

Queen Esther Wallace was born November 18, 1934 to the late Edna Bradley and the late Robert Gray in Fairfax, South Carolina.

Queen Esther attended the Allendale-Fairfax school system. Afterward, she moved to Elizabeth, New Jersey where she met the love of her life Robert N. Wallace Sr. who passed away in 1990. While raising her family, she was actively involved with the Elizabeth Public School PTA, boy scouts, cub scouts, mentoring community children and participating in church functions. She worked 15 years for Burry Biscuits and then for the Elizabeth Board of Education until retiring in 2001. After retirement, she enjoyed playing bingo, gardening, bowling, pet-parenting and spending time with her family.

She leaves to cherish three sons, Stephen A.

Wallace (Berkis) of Elizabeth, N.J., Robert N. Wallace Jr. of Rex, Georgia, and Curtis B. Wallace (Melissa) of Maplewood, N.J.; two daughters, Yvonne Wallace-Cohen of Fairfax, S.C. and Adrienne M. Wallace of Elizabeth, N.J.; three sisters, Evelyn (John) Grant of Fairfax, S.C., Mable (Walter) Dobson of Aiken, S.C., Jennie V. Youmans of Fairfax, S.C. god-son, Relious (Tammy) Grant of Warner Robins, GA and god-daughter, Shon 'Kim' Peyton of East Orange, NJ; she was predeceased by four brothers, John Otis, Robert Jr., Herman and James Gray; two sisters, Flossie Mae Bennett and Arlene Davis. She also leaves to cherish eleven grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren and a host of friends, nieces, nephews, other relatives, a dear friend, Nancy Garrone of Pocono Lake, PA and her beloved dog Candy.

Heavens Garden

If roses grow in heaven
Lord, pick a bunch for me
Place them in my mother's arms
And tell her they're from me
Tell her that I LOVE HER
And when she turns to smile
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while Because remembering my mom is easy
I do it every day
But there's a pain within my heart
That will never go away.

Love Always,
Steve and Candy
