

In Loving Memory of

A portrait of a smiling man with short dark hair, wearing a light-colored collared shirt. He is positioned in the center of the image, appearing to stand on a white, ornate staircase that curves upwards. The background is a bright blue sky with soft white clouds and two white doves in flight. The overall tone is peaceful and commemorative.

Reflections of Life

Darryl “Old-School” Williams, the son of the late Curly and Jacqueline Williams, was born March 12, 1955 in Newark, New Jersey. He entered eternal rest on Saturday, October 29, 2016.

Darryl lived in Newark, New Jersey for 61 years. He was educated in the Newark Public School system. He was a painter by trade and spent his years working as a custodian. He loved joking with his family and friends and also loved playing with the kids. He also enjoyed cooking and loved to paint. However, what he loved most of all was fussing with his daughter. Whenever they were around each other you would hear him shouting “Okay, Al-Nisa!” You could always find him on the sofa snacking and watching sports. He loved to spend the holidays with his family and friends. Darryl was very sweet, caring, and generous. If he had it, you got it.

His beautiful life will forever be cherished by his daughter, Al-Nisa Muhammad.

Darryl leaves to mourn his memory: one daughter, Al-Nisa Muhammad; son in-law, Rashad Muhammad; two grandsons, Ibn and Ahmad Muhammad and also Teayanna Johnson (Al-Nisa’s little sister) of Maplewood, New Jersey; his three beloved sisters, Gwendolyn Johnson, Joann McCray, and Denise Morris; two brothers, Dennis and Mark Williams; one brother-in-law, Earl Johnson; and one sister-in-law, Velma Williams. He also leaves to mourn his memory a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

In Grateful Appreciation

To all of you who expressed kindness to my family in the form of cards, phone calls, and visits, to my dear Father. The daughter of Darryl Williams is eternally grateful for the love and support, prayers and services rendered during the crossing over of her beloved Father into his new spiritual life. Each of you have made a profound impact on my life which I shall long remember. May the Lord keep each of you in His special care.
