Obituary

"I tell you the truth, whoever hears my words and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he had crossed over from death to life." - John 5:24

Sandra Theresa Daniels, was born on January 1, 1953 in Arlington, Georgia to William and Olivia Hall Daniels.

She attended grade school and a portion of high school in Georgia and then moved to Newark, New Jersey where she attended Weequahic High School and graduated in 1971. "San", as she was affectionately known, received a scholarship from Rutgers University, Newark Campus, where she studied. While attending Rutgers, she became politically active and worked vigorously on the campaign of Kenneth Gibson, who became the first black mayor of Newark, New Jersey.

Between her studies and her political activism, she had one son, Ruthven Auguste, Jr. She was also the proud mother of Michael Watson who predeceased her in death.

Sandra was employed by Newark Board of Education as a teacher's aide who primarily worked with special needs students in the public school system. She loved her job and was extremely fond of her students. She retired from Newark Board of Education after thirty years of service.

Sandra "San" Daniels is predeceased by her parents, William and Olivia Hall Daniels, her loving sister, Lillie Vera Reddick and a brother, Lonnie Daniels.

Left to cherish her memories are: her son, Ruthven Auguste, Jr.; five grandchildren, Dana Watson (Michael), Aalyiyah, Alisia, Aniyah Auguste and Jamonte Badger (Ruthven). She also leaves to cherish her memory, her sisters, Anne V. Chase, Carrie L. Shederick and Bernice Smith; her brothers, Ulyces Scott, Willie Scott and Moses L. Daniels; a aunt, Emily Hall; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
