Together Again

Together again, reunited with each other,
After years of longing to be with one another.
There is not a day that goes by that you are not thought of,
Our comfort is knowing your resting peacefully with God above.
Our hearts are heavy, our eyes are weary,
as we say goodbye,
Two very special people,
gained their wings and set off to fly.
We are hurt, and filled with heartbreak and pain,
But find comfort in knowing that another angel was gained.
Your smile will always be remembered
to help us through our day,
Along with the sound of your voice,
and the things you used to say.
Words can't express how much
we will miss you,
With the memories we had,
how can we forget you.
We will always cherish the good times we had,
Always thinking about the laughs and things that make us glad.
You left us so quickly, and our hearts are sore,
We wanted you here, but God needed you more.
After so long, you two are with God finally dancing together,
Watch over us my angels,
You will be truly missed
and we will love you forever.

Jimmie Lee (James) McAllister was born August 5, 1934 to Doris and Willie J. McAllister in Shorterville, Alabama. He relocated to Newark, New Jersey around the age of 19, where he met and married Beverly Arnita Holloway. They were married on September 1, 1963 and their 43-year union produced three children, James, Lisa, and Karen.

Jimmie Lee was best known as “Big Jim” or “Jimmie”. As a young man, he worked as a truck driver for Royal Dairy. He then worked as a longshoreman as a crane operator for Merck for 31 years retiring at the age of 62. He was also an active member of his local lodge.

He enjoyed daily walks in the park until his health would not allow him to continue and he was an avid fan of poker, blackjack, pinochle and the “ponies”. Fishing and watching basketball were also some of his favorite hobbies.

His quick wit and infectious sense of humor made him a joy for everyone to be around. He enjoyed many things in life, but his greatest love was in spending time with his grandchildren. He departed this world Monday, October 31st after a prolonged battle with illness.

He leaves behind, to cherish his memory, his three children James McAllister, Lisa Clarke, and Karen Cheatham; one son-in-law, Stephen Clarke Sr.; his seven grandchildren, Kendra, Stephen Jr., Chanel, Chris, Jahlisa, Narisse, and Devon; one sister, Missionary Ozzie-Dell Tolbert; a sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Cynthia and James Ellis; nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Jimmie Lee joins his loving wife, Beverly (Holloway) McAllister, who passed away in 2006.
