Obituary

Mrs. Pearl Elizabeth Harris was born in Buckingham, Virginia on July 5, 1937, to the late Mary Swann and Cambridge Harris.

Mrs. Harris received her formal education in Virginia, moved to Delaware and eventually migrated to New York City in 1955.

Mrs. Harris married, and to this union eight children were born, Thelma (deceased), Roger, Thomas (deceased), Norman, Patricia, Keith (deceased), his twin, Kevin (deceased) and Michael.

Mrs. Harris worked two jobs, one of them which she was a Home Health Care professional and the other which she retired from 32BJ Union in 1999.

She was affectionately known as “Boo”, by her grand and great-grandchildren. Boo mothered many families, those that were close to her and their extended families as well. She was a woman of integrity and frequently spoke her mind, but to know her was to love her. Boo’s door was opened to those she considered family. And if the door was open, then the kitchen was open to good eating. No matter what we ate she had a pot of fried chicken cooked up on the side. And because she had a love for the kids, she let them eat until they dropped.

Every day she would get up bright and early, listening to the Steve Harvey Morning Show while making breakfast for her grandkids, ensuring they got to school and work on time. She was a mighty little lady and even after she began to get weak she still managed to make her way to the kitchen.

Boo was empowered by her favorite song “Rough Side of the Mountain”, and kept her Bible opened to her favorite scripture 23rd Psalm, which she remembered well even until her final day.

On November 5, 2016 at 5:40am, Mrs. Harris departed from this life. Mrs. Harris leaves to cherish her memory: four children, Roger, Norman, Patricia, and Michael, all of New York City; two brothers, George and Cambridge, Jr. (Deceased); three sisters, Clarrissa, Kim, and Ellouise; one sister-in-law, Ellen; eight grandchildren, Shaniece, Ikawana, Kenneth, Norman, Jr., Ayisha, Jennifer, Troy, and Travis, all of New York City; nineteen great-grandchildren, Taquana, Kiyuanna, Brian, Alexis, Briana, Taegen, Tristen, Veronika, Brandon, Alex, Destini, Brandon, Breasia, Kenny, Kendrick, Troy, Jr., Zanolbia, Ravon and Jeremiah, all of New York City; a numerous amount of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To some you’ll be forgotten, to others just part of the past; but to us who loved and admired you, your memory will always last.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
