Reflections of Life

"This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad

Shakeya Tiffany Marshall daughter of Shelton L. and Nancy Thomas was born in Paterson, New Jersey on October 5th, 1982.

Shakeya also known as "Tiffany" received her elementary education at Paterson Public School #6 and graduated June of 1998. She was a graduate of Eastside High School class of 2000. She also attended Passaic County Community College, majoring in Early Childhood Education for a short period of time.

Shakeya met Kevin Pickens and together they created her first and only beautiful daughter Na'Deria Aonya Pickens. Na'Deria was her heart, pride and joy who she loved unconditionally and genuinely. She did everything should could for Na'Deria as her mother. They were best of friends and nothing or no one could break there bond.

She worked at Loews Theater for a few years before that she had worked at Bloomingdale Healthcare Center for eight years as a Dietary Aide.

Tiffany had a heart of gold and a passion to read. Whenever someone glanced at her, she always had a nook or book in her hand. She also had a part of her that liked to dance especially when her song came on she would swing her arms in the air and rock her hips. In her younger days, she was in a drill team.

She was a warmhearted daughter, a loving mother, generous sister, a giving aunt, and such a sweet friend.

She was predeceased by her paternal grandparents, Gloria Jean and Donald Thomas, her maternal grandparents, Dorothy A. and John T. Marshall.

Left to cherish precious memories of Tiffany are her daughter; Na'Deria, her parents; Shelton L. and Nancy Thomas, her brother; Dwayne Marshall (wife Alysha), five sisters; Shanna, Fatima (Anthony) Day, Quashima, Candice and Holly, four nieces, nine nephews, goddaughter; Brianna Jackson, and host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
